I, ROBERT D. BRADSHAW, hereby affirm as follows:

I am the plaintiff in this case. Under the provisions of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 4(d) and the court order of Jun 12, 2006 (page 6), I mailed a copy of the complaint, amended complaint and second amended complaint, two copies of the enclosed notice of lawsuit (copy at Exhibit A hereto) and a stamped return envelope to Defendant L. David Sosebee on Jun 21, 2006, by priority mail with a delivery confirmation.

Attached at Exhibit B is a copy of the confirmation and postage paid receipt showing that the mailing to Mr Sosebee was made on Jun 21, 2006. The postal confirmation shows that the letter to Mr Sosebee was delivered by the Post Office on Jun 27, 2006.

The waiver to Mr Sosebee was not signed and returned to Plaintiff within the stipulated 30 days or to date. Plaintiff incurred costs of $214.30 in mailing the waiver and making service to Mr Sosebee as follows:

Postage--$8.40

Copies of the three documents, 379 pages at 10 cents--$37.90

Costs of Service by publication in the Marianas Variety (copy of invoice attached Exhibit C)--$168.00

A lawsuit has been commenced against you. A copy of the complaint, amended complaint, and second amended complaint in that lawsuit is attached to this notice. The complaint was filed in the United States District Court for the Northern Mariana Islands, and has been assigned Docket No. 05-0027.

Your Options

This is not a formal summons or notification from the Court, but rather my request that you sign and return the enclosed waiver of service in order to save the cost of serving you with a judicial summons and an additional copy of the complaint. The cost of service will be avoided if

Ex A

I receive a signed copy of the waiver within 30 days after the date shown at the bottom of this form as sent to you. I enclose a stamped and addressed envelope for your use. An extra copy of this Notice and Request, as well as the attached Waiver are also attached for your records.

What Happens If You Comply

If you comply with this request and return the signed waiver, it will be filed with the court and no summons will be served on you. The action will then proceed as if you had been served with a summons on the date that the waiver is filed with the court, except that you will not be obligated to answer the complaint before 60 days from the date shown below as the date on which this Notice and Request was sent to you.

What May Happen if You do Not Comply

If you do not return the signed waiver within the time indicated, I will take appropriate steps to effect formal service of summons in a manner authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and will then, to the extent authorized by those Rules, ask the court to require you to pay the full costs of that service. In that connection, please read the statement concerning the duty of parties to waive service of the summons, which is set forth at the foot of the waiver form.

Date on Which Request Sent

I affirm that this Request is being sent to you on behalf of the plaintiff in this lawsuit on June 21, 2006.

Robert D. Bradshaw
Plaintiff, Pro Se

WAIVER OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS
(Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d))

I acknowledge receipt of your request that I waive service of a summons in the action entitled Robert D. Bradshaw v. Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, et. al., which is case number 05-0027 in the United States District Court for the Northern Mariana Islands. I have also received a copy of the complaint, amended complaint, and second amended complaint in the action, this instrument, and an additional copy of the Notice and Request and an additional copy of this instrument, together with a stamped, addressed envelope by which I can return a copy of the signed waiver to you with no cost to me.

I agree to save the cost of service of a summons and an additional copy of the complaint in this lawsuit by not requiring that I be served with judicial process in the manner provided by rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

I will retain all defenses or objections to the lawsuit or to the jurisdiction or venue of the court, except for objections based on a defect in the summons or in the service of the summons.

I understand that a judgment may be entered against me if an answer or motion under Rule 12 or other rules of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is not served on you within 60 days after June 21, 2006.

Dated: _____

L. David Sosebee

DUTY TO AVOID UNNECESSARY COSTS OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff located in the United States to waive service of a summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes the complaint is unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except relating to the summons or to the service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

A defendant who waives service must within the time specified on the waiver form serve on the unrepresented plaintiff a response to the complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against that defendant. By waiving service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer than if the summons had been actually served when the request for waiver of service was received.

Postage and Delivery Confirmation fees must be paid before mailing.

Lerner group closes purchase of Nationals

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group led by local real estate developer Ted Lerner and Stan Kasten officially took control of the Washington Nationals on Monday, finalizing the $450 million purchase of the club from Major League Baseball.

Lerner is the managing principal owner, and his son Mark and sons-in-law Edward Cohen and Robert Tanenbaum are principal owners. Kasten, a former executive with the Atlanta Braves and the NHL's Thrashers and NBA's Hawks, is the team president.

"It has long been my dream to bring the national pastime back to my hometown, the nation's capital," Ted Lerner said. "Now that it's been realized, I plan on doing everything I can to make sure that this franchise becomes an international jewel for MLB, D.C. and the nation."

Less than half an hour after announcing that the team's sale was finalized, the Nationals said they hired the Arizona Diamondbacks vice president of scouting operations, Mike Rizzo, as an assistant general manager and vice president of baseball operations.

"Under new ownership and the leadership of Stan Kasten, I have been given the approval and resources to hire the best and brightest the baseball industry has to offer, and today's hiring of Mike Rizzo exemplifies this," Washington GM Jim Bowden said.

Rizzo, who worked seven seasons with Arizona, is one of three assistant general managers and will be in charge of the scouting operation. Dana Brown remains director of amateur scouting, and Bowden said the club will hire a director of professional scouting and a director of international scouting — Brown and the other two will report to Rizzo.

One of Rizzo's areas of focus will be boosting the Nationals' reach abroad, scouting prospects in Latin America and Asia.

The Lerner group was chosen in May by commissioner Bud Selig from among eight bidders to buy the Nationals. Baseball's other 29 teams purchased the poor-drawing Montreal Expos for $120 million in 2002, and moved the club to Washington for the 2005 season.

After going 81-81 and averaging 33,728 fans at home in 2005, the Nationals are 43-56, last in the NL East, and drawing 27,033 per game.

"I am extremely pleased to welcome the Lerner family and their partners into Major League Baseball," Selig said. "As I've come to know Ted and his family better over the past several weeks, I'm more certain than ever that they will provide the kind of committed and stable ownership that will help this franchise flourish in the D.C. area for years and years to come."
